

Pages have been serving the House of Representatives for nearly two hundred years. Working as a team, Pages assist Members with their legislative duties, deliver correspondence and small packages within the congressional complex, answer phones in the Member cloakrooms, and prepare the House Floor for sessions.

To apply to work as a Congressional Page, you must be :

- at least 16 years of age
- at least a junior in high school
- minimum 3.0 GPA in core subjects (no GPA requirement for summer session)
- able to speak fluent English, carry/deliver packages of at least 25 pounds, walk considerable distances
- Students related to any sitting member of Congress are NOT eligible for the Page Program.

Duties of a Congressional Pages :

- work as a team on the House floor; deliver correspondence, legislative materials, and small packages within the Congressional complex; answer phones in Members' Cloakrooms; take messages for Members; call Members in the Chamber to the phone; prepare the House Floor for sessions
- attend Page School (located in the Jefferson Building of the Library of Congress)
- live in Page Residence Hall (co-ed, separated by floor)
- abide by 10pm curfew Monday-Thursday, Sunday; 12am midnight Friday-Saturday
- weekly room checks
- staffed by a director and residence assistants (all adults)
- earn a monthly salary of $1, 761. 91
- wear uniforms

Admissions :

Office of the Clerk determines when a representative is next eligible to nominate someone for the Page program. If an interested student's Member of Congress is not eligible to nominate someone that year, the student may pursue sponsorship through the office of another representative in the same state.

Application will include:

- Social Security Number
- Parental Consent Form
- Official transcript of high school grades (academic year applicants only)
- Written essay
- Resume of extra-curricular activities
- Letters of recommendation

Please visit the Congressional Page Program website for more information: <http://pageprogram.house.gov>